THE COLLECTOR & DISTRICT MAGISTRATE BANGALORE 10 FEB. 1932 C & M STATION

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS 12-2-32 RUPEES

1551/31-32

THIS INDENTURE made at Bangalore in the Civil and Military Station this 5th day of February One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Two BETWEEN V. S. Thiruvengadaswamy Mudaliar, of 'Lakshmi Vilas', High Ground, Bangalore, hereinafter called the "Founder", of the one part AND The Collector of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, the said V. S. Thiruvengadaswamy Mudaliar, and C. N. Surya Prakas of Grasmere, Osborne Road, Bangalore, hereinafter called the "Trustees", which term shall include their successors in office, wherever the context shall so require, of the other part.

WHEREAS the Founder is desirous of establishing an Institution in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore chiefly for the education of Indian girls AND WHEREAS with that intent he approached the Government with certain proposals which they have been pleased to accept AND WHEREAS the Founder is desirous of forming a Trust for the establishment, conduct and administration of such an Institution on a permanent and satisfactory basis, AND WHEREAS such a Trust was formed and an Indenture evidencing the said Trust was executed by the parties hereto on the 12th of June last which was not registered through an oversight.

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH as follows :—

1. The said Trust already formed and now hereby confirmed shall be irrevocable.

2. The Institution shall be named after Srimathi Kamalabai, wife of the Founder.

3. The Institution shall be administered, managed and controlled by a Board of three Trustees of whom the Collector of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore shall be one. Of the other two, Trustees the Founder or such person as he may nominate from the members of his family or, failing nomination or thereafter, the eldest male member of his family in descent, competent to act, shall be one. The remaining Trustee shall be chosen every three years, or sooner if the necessity should arise, from amongst the non-official Indian residents of the Station, by the Collector and the other Trustee, with due consideration as to his character, status in life, respectability and interest in public affairs, especially in matters pertaining to education. In case of any difference of opinion between the Collector and the other Trustee, the matter shall be referred to the Local Government whose opinion shall prevail. A retiring Trustee shall be eligible for re-election.

4. The first Trustees shall be the parties of the other part, but the said C. N. Surya Prakas shall be a Trustee for Life notwithstanding anything contained in clause 3 above unless his office terminates by operation of Law.

5. The Founder has spent a sum of Rs. 20,000 (Twenty Thousand only) on the buildings on Plots Numbers 14 to 16 and 21 to 28 in West Cubbon Lines in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore which have been purchased from the local Municipal Commission for Rs. 15,000 (Fifteen Thousand only), the site having been approved of by the Local Government who have also agreed to contribute towards the cost of the land and buildings. This sum of Rs. 20,000 (Twenty Thousand only) constitutes the contribution of the Founder towards the cost of the site and the buildings.

6. The Founder has also paid a sum of Rs. 25,000 (Twenty-Five Thousand only) to the Trustees who shall hold the same in trust and invest it in such securities as may be authorized by Law and who may alter and vary the investments as they may think fit.

7. Such investment shall stand in the name of the Collector of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore but shall not be altered or varied except by a decision of the majority of the Trustees.

8. The corpus of the sum endowed shall not be drawn upon for any purpose whatsoever but the income therefrom shall be utilized towards the maintenance of the Trust and the Institution, the Government having at present promised to grant adequate facilities for the maintenance of a High School.

9. The Trustees shall be at liberty to enlarge the activities of the Institution in such manner as they may think fit.

10. The Trustees shall also be at liberty to make such rules as may be necessary for the conduct of their business and to vary, modify or rescind them but so as not to affect any matter that may be under consideration by them at the time. Such rules shall bind them until they are varied, modified or rescinded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Founder has set his hand and seal the day, month and year first above written.

Signed in the presence of :—

1. P. Raghunatha Rao.
2. A. Viswanatha Mudaliar

We, the Trustees abovenamed, do hereby accept the above Trust.
